RE: Michael F. Moloney
Assistant Federal Public Defender
Federal Public Defender's Office

FILED 5-22-2018
US DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA
MAY 29 2018
OFFICE OF THE CLERK

I received a reply to my request for discovery. In it there was a letter from Michael P. Norris dated November 17th, 2016. In this letter there is a request that you "do not give out copies of the discovery to your client." The reasons the proponent request you not disclose this material is not supported by any law or rule of Fed. R. Crim. Pro. Furthermore, as I am now in the post conviction phase of my case the issues presented are irrelevant ~~and~~ currently.

I do see that the volume of material requested is extreme, so I offer the following. Please contact the legal staff at FCI Pekin and request permission to forward all 14 items on the list (11-17-16 letter) in CD or DVD format to the prison.

Thank you for your time. A copy of this renewed request is being forwarded to the Clerk of the Court.

The enclosed discovery may contain electronic media that requires additional software to open, inspect, and review. If you are unable to open, inspect, or review any of the electronic media, please contact Amy Donato, who can provide you with technical assistance.

Copies of these reports and discovery information are being provided to you to share with your client. I request that you do not give out copies of the discovery to your client. In the past, discovery materials have been disseminated by various defendants to persons in the community. This works to no one's advantage and often places the defendant in a position of possibly obstructing justice. Please notify me if you have problems with this request.

The United States realizes its obligation to supplement the Rule 16 discovery materials if additional information becomes available. This letter also serves as a formal request, pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, for reciprocal discovery by the defendant.

Should you have any questions, please advise.

Sincerely,

DEBORAH R. GILG
United States Attorney
